

What is claimed is:

1. A structure of decorative panel for inserted-in photographs (or pictures), including a panel; a plurality of through holes provided on the surface of the panel, wherein the size of each through hole is smaller than that of a photo (or picture); a U-shaped receiving slot provided at the back
5 of the panel corresponding to the bottom and two lateral sides of the through hole, wherein the receiving slot is for a photo (or picture) to be inserted in without applying any glue so that the other photos (or pictures) can take the place of the existing photo (or picture).
- 10 2. The structure of decorative panel for inserted-in photographs (or pictures) as claimed in claim 1, wherein the photo (or picture) can be replaced by a picture card.
3. The structure of decorative panel for inserted-in photographs (or pictures) as claimed in claim 1, wherein the receiving slot can
15 alternately be an L shape and located at the bottom and one lateral side of the through hole.
4. The structure of decorative panel for inserted-in photographs (or pictures) as claimed in claim 1, wherein a back panel can be provided at the backside of the panel to encompass all the photos (or pictures).
- 20 5. The structure of decorative panel for inserted-in photographs (or pictures) as claimed in claim 1, wherein the material of the panel can be either one of the following: cardboard, plastic, wood, or metal.
6. The structure of decorative panel for inserted-in photographs (or pictures) as claimed in claim 1, wherein a photo (or picture) frame can 25 be added to the periphery of the panel.